

Investment Philosophy/Process

Search for companies with attractive Private Market Value, or PMV (the price an informed industrialist would pay for the entire company) and a catalyst, an event to surface the value of the company

Utilize Columbia University professors Benjamin Graham and David Dodd's "Margin of Safety" concept – by investing in securities with a material difference between their market and estimated intrinsic values

Seek to buy reasonably-priced and strong franchises within GAMCO's circle of competence

Performance data quoted represents past performance. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold or redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. Current performance data may be higher or lower than actual data quoted. For the most current month-end performance data please call 1-888-310-0416.

Maximum Offering Price (MOP) for Class A shares includes the Fund's maximum sales charge of 5.50%. Performance shown at NAV does not include these sales charges and would have been lower had it been taken into account.

Returns over one year are average annual returns.

Principal Risks: Performance may be affected by one or more of the following risks.

Mid-Cap and Small-Cap Company Risk: The Fund's investments in mid- and small-cap companies may involve greater risks than investments in larger, more established issuers because they generally are more vulnerable than larger companies to adverse business or economic developments.

Value Funds: Value-based investments are subject to the risk that the broad market may not recognize their intrinsic value.

The Fund is designed for long-term investors who can accept the special risks associated with value investing.

Russell 2500 Value: An unmanaged index which contains those Russell 2500 securities (the bottom 500 securities in the Russell 1000 Index and all 2,000 securities in the Russell 2000 Index) with a less-than-average growth orientation.
